The library will take practical steps to promote the safety and security of minors using the library's public computer workstations. Specifically, the library will take practical steps to address the following things specified in the federal Neighborhood Children's Internet Protection Act:

- Limit access by minors to inappropriate matter on the Internet and World Wide Web. Minors under the age of 13 may not use unfiltered public Internet workstations in the library unless their parents have given written permission for their children to have unfiltered access to the Internet and the World Wide Web;
- Limit unauthorized access, including so-called 'hacking', and other unlawful activities by minors online
- Limit unauthorized disclosure, use, and dissemination of personal identification information regarding minors; and
- Provide measures designed to restrict the access by minors to materials harmful to minors
