

1903 Special Meeting

President Starr Presiding

Present: Coffin Cotton Tracey Pittman

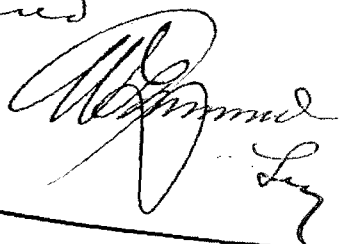

The Librarian, Miss Brown presented her resignation to take effect July 1st 1901, stating that it was her intention to accept a position in the State Library Commission and make a specialty of childrens library work. She further informed the board that Miss E D Dixon of Madison, the former Librarian here would return here for a salary of $800.00 per annum provided a separate apartment for children was provided and that Miss Brown take charge of it as far as possible
