

I think since the girls have written it is hardly worth while to burden you with too much I would just say to you that I think the girls felt a little convinced of their Ingratitude I suppose they get their feeling of that kind from the mothers you know my aversion to being in partnerships they think more of our line in their name than in a sheet written <sup>or dictated</sup> to me. I was at Clintonville to meeting last sabbath heard M<sup>r</sup> Reed you can scarce conceive my feelings to hear M<sup>r</sup> Pines and hear him pray in his family and so how different he appears I heard Handers make a prayer and Jessy Glasby Isaac Williams has united ~~not~~ with the Church; we are getting our work a long way I suppose it will be needless to write many more letters you will so soon be on your Journey home I shall write next mail if my life is spared yours in truth

Martha Finch