The book club will read widely across American history, from pre-European settlement to the present day. Women’s history, environmental history, military history, immigration history, political history, biographies—you name it, this book club will read it!

Participants will also have the opportunity ask Chippewa Valley Museum historian, John Vanek, questions about the readings.

Second Tuesday of Each Month • 6:30–8 p.m.
Chippewa Valley Museum • 1204 East Half Moon Dr., Eau Claire

Discussion Schedule:
March 8: Founding Brothers: The Revolutionary Generation by Joseph J. Ellis
May 10: The Latehomecomer: A Hmong Family Memoir by Kao Kalia Yang

Registration is recommended. Online registration available at www.ecpubliclibrary.info/events.
Co-sponsored by the Chippewa Valley Museum and L.E. Phillips Memorial Public Library.
