SEPTEMBER 9–OCTOBER 15

Far From the Madding Crowd
Exhibit by Allan Servoss

Allan Servoss has spent the best part of fall and winter of 2017 and 2018 creating spaces to retreat. He believes there are always things in human society that compel one to wish to escape, but that lately, the magnitude seems to have grown. He has read most of Thomas Hardy's Wessex novels and the title of Far from the Madding Crowd seemed to fit the situation. He says, "I don't think Hardy would object."

The show features over two dozen of his new drawings in colored pencil.

OCTOBER 21–NOVEMBER 26

Painting Dance and Drawing Landscapes
Exhibit by Barbara Shafer

Artist Reception: Thursday, October 25 • 7–8 p.m.

Barbara Shafer's previous exhibit at the L.E. Phillips Memorial Public Library featured large still-life paintings. They were an amalgamation of her plein air work and her dancer figure studies. In this exhibit, "Painting Dance and Drawing Landscapes," Barbara once again paints the drama of the dance and brings indoors the energy of the brutal rocks from the shore of Lake Superior. In these distinctly different approaches to attacking a two-dimensional surface, her work coalesces around interest in form, line, and the play of light across the surface of things.
