What you’ll need . . .

» Handkerchief (20” × 20” bandana used here)

» 2 Rubber Bands (or hair ties)

Notes: You can also cut up a pair of old nylons or socks to create elastic earpieces. You may have to adjust where the elastic pieces sit along the final product to create a snug fit that does not pop off your ears.

1. Place fully open handkerchief face down on a flat surface.

2. Fold the top down to the center.

3. Fold the bottom up to the center.

4. Flip folded handkerchief over.
5. Fold the top down to the center.

6. Fold bottom up to the center.

7. Flip folded handkerchief over again.

8. Thread the two ends of the handkerchief through hair ties.

9. Fold the two sides of the handkerchief in toward the center.

10. Flip over, and you have a no-sew face mask! Wash the mask after each use and you’ll always have a fresh mask.
